Dear Scouting Friend,

I would like to invite you and your family to attend the Concho Valley District Recognition Banquet, Friday January 11th at 6:00 pm. We want to honor and recognize our adventurous scouts, persevering leaders, and soaring Eagle Scouts for all their accomplishments in the Concho Valley District in 2018. Please join us for a potluck banquet, "This Ain't Your Rubber Chicken Dinner", and recognize the outstanding leaders and scouts in our District. We will also be hosting and honoring the class of 2018 Eagle Scouts. So, we would be delighted with your attendance.

The banquet is potluck and free, but we would like to host this year's Eagle class. If you would like to sponsor an Eagle Scout and their family's attendance or sponsor this year's Silver Beaver recipient(s). Please fill out the following:
